The Draft.

In consequence of the returns from the enrolling commissioners of the several counties in the State not having been received, the draft is necessarily postponed. As soon as the returns are all received the day for the drafting to take place will be definitely fixed. The time for drafting and the quota for each township in the State will be definitely announced in a few days.

By order of

O. P. MORTON, Governor.
J. P. SIDDALL, Gen'l Com.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—The Jay Torch Light has passed into the hands of P. S. Loofburrow. Under his management and that of his foreman—Cyrus Garrett—the "Torch" has already been very much improved. Success to the new proprietor—may he always be blessed with "paid in advance" subscriptions, and his children never be in want of wedding cake and other "fixin's," no indignant subscriber ever call him a fool, knave or scoundrel, and publish "a paper to suit everybody."

Sadly we bid "good-bye" to the retiring editor—M. W. Montgomery, Esq.—to whom we are under obligations for many kindnesses in the past. Success to him in whatever he may undertake in the future.

The "disorganizers" of Wayne County made a big effort to get up a Mass Convention, to assemble at Cambridge City, on the 11th inst.—the day on which the Butternut Democracy held their Convention—for the purpose of making nominations for County offices, but the whole thing "fizzled," and no nominations were made.

E. R. McConnell has been improving his property opposite and east of the Court House on Main Street, so that it presents a much better appearance than formerly.

John Ross has received a big lot of new goods. He has everything that a body needs, and a little more, all of which he sells at most reasonable prices. Call and see his new stock.

Following is a list of those severely wounded in Capt. Bonebrake's Company in the Richmond battle:

Lieut. J. K. Martin, groin.
Orderly Sergeant Stine, in the back, ball in breast.

Jones H. Surface, hand and thigh.

Wm. H. R. Johnson, side.
Martin Tooker, foot.

Robert Russell, leg, amputated.

Wm. Hester, leg.

Captain Bonebrake, Lieutenant Way, and several privates of Co. C, 60th Indiana, arrived in Winchester on Monday morning, from Louisville, via Indianapolis. The Captain's health is poor. Lieut. Way is looking as well and hearty as ever. The boys are also in good health, with one or two exceptions.

NEW PAPER.—We have received the first copy of the Hartford City Union. James W. Ruckman, formerly of the Muncie Free Press, Editor and Publisher.

It is emphatically an unconditional Union paper. Mr. Ruckman is an able writer, and that secesh sheet, the Blackford County Democrat, will receive but little favor at his hands. Its typographical appearance is very fine. Here is our CY, brother Rockman. May success crown your every effort.

Our farmers have commenced seeding. We believe they are putting in larger crops than heretofore, at least all that their help will permit.

The Democratic Convention which met at Cambridge City on the 11th inst., nominated Edmund Johnson, a Breckinridge Secesh Democrat, as a candidate for Congress.

David H. Reeder, Esq., has been left in charge of Col. I. P. Gray's Dry Goods Store, at Union City, Indiana. He has a large and well selected stock, which he is now selling at war prices.

We have neglected heretofore to tell the people of Winchester that we have a new drayman. John C. Peelle is the man. Give him a call when you want any draying done—his terms are very reasonable.

Lieut. J. K. Martin has returned home. His many friends throughout the county will be gratified to learn that his wound is healing very fast. He hopes that he may be able for active duty soon.

Scott Parker, a son of the late S. W. Parker, was killed in one of the late battles near Washington.—Centerville True Republican.

The corn crop of this county is much larger than ever before. It is of the best quality.

Circuit Court is in session, Judge Elliott presiding.

The Docket is tolerably large.

See the new card of A. J. Ross, Dentist, in another column.

The Daily London News, in reviewing the message of Jeff Davis, says he has attempted to present a character of moderation and dignity, but the fierce and vindictive spirit that breathes his habitual calmness and reserve is proof of his exasperated temper, if not also of the desperate prospect of the Southern Government.

It denounces the savage policy which he recommends to Congress, and says that the treatment threatened to officers of troops incongruously composed, causes not only every instinct of humanity and every sentiment of justice to revolt at it, but it is an outrage against civilization itself.

DIS UNION—A PICTURE.—The Hon. Archibald Dixon delivered an eloquent speech to the Democracy of Henderson county, Ky., in vindication of Stephen A. Douglas, and in opposition to sectionalism, on the 21st of July. He presents to the people of Kentucky the following graphic picture of what their state would be in case the schemes of the Disunionists should succeed:

Will those states do what they threatened to do? And then when they have withdrawn, the fearful struggle between the Northern and Southern states is to be precipitated upon the country. Then Kentucky is to become the theatre, once more, of battles and conflicts, and which, in former times, from their fierce and terrible character, gave to her the name of "Dark and Bloody Ground." Over her Territories hostile armies are to march and counter march, here within her limits and upon her soil the battles of the contending armies will be fought, and her people subjected to all the horrors of civil war.

The bones of her slaughtered citizens will bleach upon the hills and the vales, and her streams run red with the blood of her murdered people—and when all this has been done, and the best government ever vouchsafed by Heaven to man has been broken up and destroyed; and that, too, for the merest abstraction of protecting slavery in the Territories, what will you have gained? Will you have succeeded in accomplishing that for which this greatest of all sacrifices is to be made? Will slavery in the Territories be then protected? Answer the question, ye Disunionists, and you who are in favor of a separate Southern Confederacy.

PILES.

Dr. J. T. Boys, of Indianapolis, has discovered a specific for the cure of piles. This medicine is very agreeable to take and has not failed to afford relief in any case in which it has been employed. Any one employing One Dollar to Dr. J. T. Boys, Indianapolis, Ind., will receive a package by return mail, post paid.

GYMNASTICS.

The New Gymnastics,
FOR.

MEN, WOMEN, AND CHILDREN.

With a translation of Prof. Kloss's Dumb Bell Instructor and Prof. Sherber's Pangymnastikon.

BY DIO LEWIS, M. D.,

PROPRIETOR OF THE ESSEX STREET GYMNASIUM, BOSTON.

With Three Hundred Illustrations. One Vol. Price $1.00.

No recent Magazine paper has excited more general interest than the articles in the August Atlantic, on "The New Gymnastics." The present work is a complete exposition of the system of which that article gave a synopsis.

The author of this work has been for many years engaged in teaching Gymnastics. The book describes and illustrates his New System of Physical Training. This system has had the practical test of long and varied use. It comprises exercises with Dumb Bells, Rings, Wands, Clubs, etc., all of which are made perfectly clear by full explanations, while many are illustrated by pictorial representations of the position of the body required to perform them.

The Dumb Bell Instructor, connected with this work, is of the highest interest and importance. It is designed for home use, and gives a great variety of Dumb Bell Exercises, together with a carefully selected progressive series for every day practice.

The Pangymnastikon is a very simple, useful, and cheap piece of gymnastic apparatus, upon which all gymnastic exercises may be performed, and which can be introduced, at small cost, into any private house. It is fully described and illustrated in this volume.

The "New Gymnastics" should be read by every family in the land, where exercise is valued as a means of health. Ladies, especially, will find it a great variety of Easy, Simple, and Invigorating Exercises, all of which may be practiced in their own homes.

For sale by all booksellers, or sent postpaid to any address, on the receipt of ONE DOLLAR, by the publishers,

THE MONITOR,

EDITED AT

Concord, Mass., U. S. A.

Is designed to fill a place until now occupied by no American publication.

Its columns are freely open to any sincere, fearless thought, on any subject. It allows free discussion on both sides of any topic, leaving the moral to winnow itself from the chaff of words. It offers a brave opinion to-day, but reserves the right to offer a braver one to-morrow, even if it contradicts itself. Its many editorial departments are under the control of one man, which, after hearing all opinions, decides for itself. It is not doubted that America will support this, its first Weekly Review of Literature, Science, Art, the Drama, Wit, Music, Poetry, Temperance, Politics, Mechanics, Patriotism, Liberty, and Truth.
